GIANTS TRADITION

THE NHL SHOPS HERE

Your Vancouver Giants have developed a winning tradition that continues to produce competitive teams and NHL-ready talent season after season. Led by legendary Head Coach Don Hay and his 400+ career wins, the Giants have quickly become a model CHL franchise.

Just look at our recent history:

- 8-straight playoff appearances
- 4-straight 100+ point seasons ('06-'09)
- 5-straight BC division titles
- 2006 WHL Champions
- 2007 Memorial Cup Champions
- Over 30 Alumni drafted/signed by NHL teams
- 4 Western Conference Finals appearances in the last 5 years

Evander Kane,
4th overall pick in the 2009 NHL
Draft by the Atlanta Thrashers

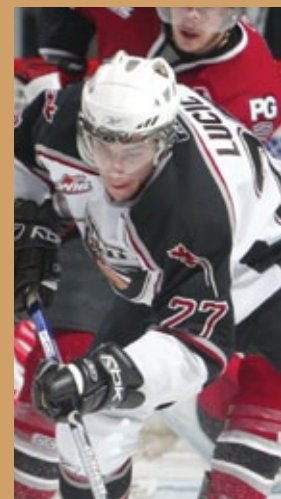

The Western Hockey League is the leading supplier of talent to the NHL, with over 20% of current NHL players being products of the WHL.

In fact, in our nine seasons of existence over 100 current NHL'ers have come through the Pacific Coliseum, including:

- Alex Edler – Vancouver Canucks (Kelowna Rockets)
- Ryan Getzlaf – Anaheim Ducks (Calgary Hitmen)
- Shea Weber – Nashville Predators (Kelowna Rockets)
- Cam Ward – Carolina Hurricanes (Red Deer Rebels)
- Mike Green – Washington Capitals (Saskatoon Blades)
- Jay Bouwmeester – Calgary Flames (Medicine Hat Tigers)
- Carey Price – Montreal Canadiens (Tri-City Americans)
- Devin Setoguchi – San Jose Sharks (Prince George Cougars)

And this season alone, 14 Giants Alumni have skated in the NHL, including:

- Milan Lucic – Boston Bruins
- Gilbert Brule – Edmonton Oilers
- Mark Fistric – Dallas Stars
- Andrej Meszaros – Tampa Bay Lightning
- Cody Franson – Nashville Predators
- Evander Kane – Atlanta Thrashers
- James Wright – Tampa Bay Lightning
